ANTIQUED STONE COLLECTION 2025

Pierre Noire Antiqued 16x24

Seashell Antiqued 16x24

embrace the timeless allure of our exquisite natural stone collection

Limestone Selections

where the name itself encapsulates the essence of our remarkable natural stone collection

With a focus on surface and edge treatments that evoke a sense of old-age charm; captivating array of limestone, marble, basalt, and travertine in 16×24 sizes exude elegance, conjuring images of medieval opulence and the allure of reclaimed heritage

Each stone bears the mark of natural beauty, boasting a vintage appeal that transcends time

Caracas Blue Antiqued Limestone Tile

The "blue" in its name refers to the blue-toned hues within the stone, and the antiqued finish gives it a weathered, aged look.
The antiqued finish is achieved by carefully abrading the surface, accentuating the denser underlying material and creating a unique texture.
It can be used for flooring, wall applications, and even exterior spaces, depending on the specific finish and type.

BLUE/ GREY TONES

Châtillon Doré Brushed Limestone Tile

Timeless French limestone, distinguished by its warm beige-gold tones, consistent grain, and subtle texture. Sawn parallel to the bed, this stone exudes a classic elegance that's enhanced by the chosen finish. Its refined appearance and durability make it a sought-after choice for façades, residential paving, and flooring.

The natural blend of beige, gold, and ochre in Magny Doré creates a harmonious palette. The "Old World" finish, as shown here, evokes the charm of antique stone floors—perfect for traditional or rustic residential designs.

Renowned for its architectural legacy, Magny Doré was famously selected by architect Ieoh Ming Pei for the modern expansion of the Louvre Museum. This variation, sawn perpendicular to the bed, reveals light horizontal veining and subtle tonal variations that enhance its natural sophistication while maintaining visual consistency.
